LOCAL NEWS.

The Tripp trial still drags its slow length along.

Things were quiet in town last night—no Circus, no clown, no fun.

Hon. George W. Merrill, U. S. Minister Resident has taken the pains to enquire into the case of Minnie Delaney.

The noon-day meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday was well attended and a good deal of interest was manifested.

In the Police Court yesterday two drunks paid $6 each and a hackman was fined $8 for tampering with express rule No. 6.

A Chinaman by his own carelessness came very near being run over by a lively outfit, in front of Hollister's drug store on Nuuanu street yesterday afternoon.

A horse coming down Fort street yesterday noon at a full gallop slipped on the recently sprinkled road nearly throwing its rider to the ground. Another caution against fast riding.

There will be no Circus performance to-night owing to the fact, that the clown has to be oiled up and repaired, which usually takes two days of every month when he is in active service.

The Honokaa Sugar Company met yesterday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: F. A. Schaefer, President; S. Hoting, Treasurer; H. Renjes, Secretary; M. McInerney, Auditor.

The steamer W. G. Hall reports good weather the whole of her last trip. She returned to Honolulu a day before her regular time so that she would be able to put her sugar on board the steamer Alameda.

The sailors composing the new crew of the Cape Horn Pigeon were paid fifty dollars each as an inducement to embark. It is said, however, that a number of them spent every dollar before they were got aboard the vessel.

About nine o'clock yesterday morning a horse, belonging to Mr. Aona of the Government Building ran away with a buggy along Queen street from the Government Building to Richard street, where the horse stopped when there was no more buggy left attached to him to be broken up.

A Chinaman in the Chinese quarter, who has evidently been taking lessons of the Circus clown pretended to have fits last night, but as the necessary remedy, brandy, was not forthcoming he concluded that he had made a bad break and left the room in disgust, without a repetition of the first attack.

The number of visitors enjoying the cool and breezy reading rooms of the Y. M. C. A. in the absence of the General Secretary, Mr. Fuller, is apparently undiminished. Much credit is due to Mr. J. A. Gonsalves for the tidy manner in which the rooms have been kept during the absence of Mr. Fuller.

Some very attractive photographs of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel were retaken yesterday afternoon by Jimmie Williams. These views present the building to good advantage surrounded as it is by tropical vegetation. These pictures, which they are intended, that of advertising abroad.

Something should be done to suppress the nuisance extensively practiced by the natives that of bathing in the Nuuanu stream in close proximity to public roads. Dozens of these natives may be seen almost any day indulging in their daily baths without exercising the least precaution to hide their nude form from passers by.

The new barge completed by Messrs. Johnston and Rowland for His Majesty is now to be provided with outriggers. The famed Cleopatras barge will not be a circumstance to this latest specimen of naval architecture when it makes its appearance in the harbor with its sixteen sturdy oarsmen sailing in unison and belaboring the wave in rhythmic measure.

The Post Office will close the Alameda's mail at half past ten o'clock Saturday morning. The Money Order department will be closed after three o'clock to-day. Registered letters may be sent until half past nine o'clock to-morrow morning, and late letters will be received until a quarter before twelve o'clock to-morrow, by paying five cents extra postage on them.

The new Chinese Theatre at the old Custom House which has lately been enlarged, newly plastered, painted, etc., will be opened for the first performance next Saturday night at seven o'clock. The theater will run opposition to the Circus for a few nights only. It is announced that in about two months' time the management will bring some fifty actors from China with ward robes valued at over $20,000.

The whaler Cape Horn Pigeon went outside yesterday afternoon. She will cruise about for a day or two and will then return to see if the officers have caught any more of the men who deserted this week. Yesterday morning one deserter was caught stowed away in Fowler's yard and during the afternoon two more were caught at the same place.

Boys, be careful how you play ball after dark. One little urchin down at the wharf last night came very near having one of his eyes put out by continuing his catch game of throwing his ball high into the air after night-fall. The little fellow at first thought he had been struck by a bomb charged with dynamite, but happily soon recovered with slight injuries.

There was a good deal of loud talk interspersed with profanity among a lot of sailors in the vicinity of the Honolulu restaurant on the corner of Merchant and Nuuanu streets about dark last night, but owing to the ready response of a number of native policemen there was no blood shed, so we are again compelled to cut short what at first promised to be an A No 1 local.

Parquetry work is now being made in Honolulu for the first time. It is being manufactured for the residence of T. R. Lucas on Beretania street. The parquetry is made of ash, walnut and koa woods which will extend around the side of the room. The word "Aloha" is to be placed near the front door and will be done in the same style of workmanship. The work will be executed by Mr. J. Moore.

Yesterday morning as one of our society belles on Nuuanu avenue was comfortably seated in her carriage for a drive with a gentleman friend, she discovered in her haste she had forgotten to supply herself with a lap robe; whereupon she called to her Chinese servant to go and fetch the forgotten article, at the same time making motions as if spreading the robe about her. The Celestial, with the remark, "me heap sabbe lap robe," went cheerfully tripping away in obedience to his mistress's request. Two gentlemen driving by in another carriage had in the meantime halted to exchange greetings with the couple at the gate. Just as the conversation was becoming interesting, the Chinaman put in his appearance upon the scene with a good sized thirteen hooped excelsior bustle, which he threw into the lady's lap. We refrain from describing the tableau that followed.

They say: that the Government party is so confident of success at the coming elections that its leaders will not admit there is any chance of failure; that the truth is generally told with the best grace when it subserves personal interests; that a breach of promise suit will be brought soon; that the best chance for the opium ring is to keep things dark; that the circus will have another crowded house on Saturday night next; that the paper-mill enter prize would pay here if the necessary capital could be gotten to put it through; that the saloons are becoming more careful lately in closing upon time; that the base ball nines will be split up and re-organized next season; that the men who violate the Sunday law ought to be brought to the scratch; that dove shooting by the natives and others ought to be stopped by the authorities; that the circus will be under royal patronage next Saturday night; that Chinese vendors should be prohibited from carrying their baskets and poles on the narrow sidewalks; that the Opera troupe will give as good a performance if not a better one to-night than was given last night; that the Saratoga House is looking up; that the stores on Fort street are beginning to look Christmas-like and attractive; and that some hack horses know more than their drivers.

The Last Opera.

The last night of Firini's Chamber Opera Company has proved at least a success at which there can be no carrying. All the concert numbers were rendered with delicacy yet with in and spirit which caused repeated recalls. The audience seemed to feel great sympathy with the excellent performance of last night and those who have declined to attend these performances because they did not come up to a foolish standard have missed some good singing which they will not be able to criticise because they have not heard it.

The enthusiasm last night seemed to grow after each number. The finale of the evening was the entire third act from Faust, which was presented in a highly artistic style. Mile. Zora as Marguerite sang and acted her part according to her reputation. She was favorably received. Miss Avery as "Sibel" took the part and acted as well as she sang. She was recalled in her "Flower Song" and repeated it with a pleased face. Mile. Hopf as "Martha" did herself full justice. Mr. Charles Thrower as "Faust" gave the high C in "Salve Damos" which will not soon be forgotten; his character has so many fine points to display his talent that he acquitted himself in a highly creditable manner. Sig. Farini's acting and singing as "Memphisto" was simply good. His voice was in good trim and the graphic stage presence of that gentleman has been acknowledged by some of the leading papers in America. It will be a long time before a Company of such talented artists will visit Honolulu again, especially as an ensemble and it is to be regretted that the people of Honolulu did not give a substantial proof to a company who so richly deserve it. To-night Mr. Charles Thrower, the favorite tenor will have a benefit when the entire Company will take part. It is hoped that a crowded house will be present.

Answers to Correspondents.

Native.—It is impossible to tell which way a cat in a bag will jump and it is just as impossible for us to tell you until after the next Privy Council meets what way the political cat will jump.

Alas!—Yes, but then the pity of it is that those who love you not socially, will immediately play the Hamlet racket on you while Gossip digs your reputations' grave.

X.—It is for you to determine: if you know where two of the Cape Horn Pigeon's men are stowed away, why then it becomes your plain duty to either give it away or keep it to yourself.
